

Who Was Elder Frazee?

W.D. Frazee was born in 1906, near Phoenix, Arizona. At 16, young Bill Frazee (as he was known by friends and family) applied to the Medical Missionary Course being taught at the College of Medical Evangelists (Loma Linda).

Elder Frazee served as apprentice to John Tindall for approximately five years, gaining all the wisdom and experience that he could. Eventually, Elder Frazee began holding his own meetings in the San Francisco area, and soon received a call to go to Utah as a gospel medical evangelist. During the Great Depression, when the church could not afford to hire any assistants, Elder Frazee began inviting professionals to join him as volunteers. This began a faith ministry that would become the foundation for the establishment of the Wildwood Medical Missionary Institute in 1942.

W.D. Frazee believed that each person is unique, specially designed by the Lord, of infinite value, and has a special place and a singular mission in this world which only he can fill. His life followed this principle and he encouraged others to do the same.

How Do Others Remember Him?

"Elder Frazee's preaching was sincere. He was in earnest. He was a man on a mission. And when I listened to him preach, I sensed that his messages came from the Almighty Throne Room of God. I knew he had been on his knees and that God had impacted his mind. His messages were in contrast to some of the surface, shallow, and superficial messages that we so often hear. These messages were deep. They were biblical, and they were moving. They helped to shape my concept of preaching."

*Elder Mark Finley,
Evangelism for the General Conference of Seventh-day
Adventists*

"I was exposed to Brother Frazee through Ransom and Reunion, and then I ran into some old, dusty tapes. He wasn't the kind of preacher I was used to. He spoke softly and slowly! I am impressed that his message was so potent that it needed no help. That wisdom should NOT be buried."

Jeffrey Rosario, Gospel Worker, Radiant Living Team

"Elder Frazee had a unique ability to balance spiritual truth with practical ministry."

David DeRose, M.D., M.P.H., Oklahoma

"Elder Frazee is the most practical preacher I've ever listened to. He could find gold in God's Word where others saw only gray granite. He could then refine that gold into user-friendly, easy-to-apply, life-changing truth."

*Frank Fournier, President,
Eden Valley Institute, Loveland, Colorado*
