

Copying Rules for W.D. Frazee Sermons Material

Many have asked us about the rules for copying sermons and transcriptions from our website.

The rules are simple:

- You may freely download all the sermons in the "Download Free Sermons" section and the "Transcribed Sermons" section for an unlimited number of times
- You may store them on several computers, iPods, burn them to CD's, etc.
- You may freely distribute the sermons to as many as you desire

You will need special permission before you:

- Post the sermons or any of our content on your own website
- Sell any of our materials
- Publish in electronic newsletters, advertisements, eBooks, etc. Or publish in paper newsletters, articles, books, etc.
- Copy on CD, MP3, from our books, etc. that which is not from the free sections on our website. (Under certain circumstances we may allow certain types of copying of these non-free sermons after special permission has been granted)

You may never:

- Do anything from the above list without first getting special permission
- Alter any of the content (except when publishing in an article and you wish to downsize the sermon's volume to fit the space. You will need special permission first, and you must submit your final draft to us for review before you publish)
- Use any of our materials in a way that is not in harmony with the ideals and goals of W.D. Frazee Sermons

If you have any further questions regarding copying rules you can email us:

We want everyone to be able to enjoy these sermons. In order to avoid the unscrupulous quoting of Elder Frazee by dissident movements, we want to do everything that we can to protect as far as possible the true character of these precious materials.

We have been delighted to help anyone who has wanted to publish Elder Frazee's sermons in articles for their publications provided that all of the above conditions have been met. If you are interested in using either a portion or a whole sermon by Elder Frazee, or a nature nugget by his wife, Helen, or any other of our recordings and printed material, on your website or some publication of yours:
